

Freya and the creepy monster

Long ago, in a golden palace lived a Viking god called Odin. He told Freya, the goddess of power, to come to a palace. Before Freya went, she asked her husband Erickson what necklace she shall wear and Erickson said " You don't need more stuff. " Freya said " I want more things why don't you get me anything I want to look prettier." So Freya went over the rainbow bridge to find a magical bracelet. As she went over the rainbow bridge into Asgard it started to snow. She he found a tunnel and went in it. In the tunnel it smelt like mud and worms. Freya could hear something it was the sound of hammering. She saw a bright light shining so brightly that it was almost about to make her blind. She saw some monsters looking at her very closely and some of them were dancing with some jewels on themselves. But tell you what it wasn't an ordinary tunnel it was really creepy tunnel full of spiders. The walls were wet and sticky everything was horrible. The monsters had beards that smelt like mud and they looked so disgusting that Freya was going to fall sick. She found a magical bracelet on a table and tried to take it. The monsters said to her "you must do whatever I tell you to do otherwise you won't get the magical bracelet." They looked as slimy as a snail. The monsters challenged her to kiss them and she thought "shall I do it or not then she said " Yes I will do it I could do anything to get that magical bracelet it is so lovely. So she kissed them one at a time. Then of she went back to Midgard. She told her husband everything the happened that he left the house away from Freya forever and he didn't come back. Freya went to Erickson and said " I am very sorry please forgive me and Odin said " no I will never forgive you until you bring Erickson back so of she went looking for Erickson. Did Freya find Erickson? No she didn't find Erickson so Odin didn't forgive her!! She cried every day and night wishing that Erickson could come back and Odin could forgive her but no Erickson didn't come back and Odin didn't forgive her because Erickson didn't come back to her. She cried and cried that she didn't even go outside to meet Thor, Odin and Iduna. Iduna was the goddess who had lots of apples. Thor was the god of thunder. Also, Thor was the son of Odin. Freya couldn't even face any one because she was crying so much. Whenever someone came she didn't even open the when people came. Then the next day someone knocked on the door she looked through the window and saw Erickson at the door. She ran to the door opened it and let Erickson inside the house. She told Erickson to stay inside the house while she does something. Freya ran to Odin and told him " Odin, Erickson is back come and see for yourself but Erickson left the house. Odin said " No he isn't and Freya said " But I saw him come Odin why don't you believe me. I saw Erickson with my own eyes seriously I did see him but Odin didn't believe her. So he went back to his palace. Odin thought about it. All day and all night he kept on thinking about it. Then the next day Odin went to visit Freya. He said "Freya I will forgive you but you have to find Erickson with me right this minute. " so of she went with Odin to find Erickson. They searched all day and night but still couldn't find him. Freya was really upset. Odin went to Iduna and Thor so that they could help her find Erickson. They helped and they saw Erickson and said ‘‘

Freya is missing you so much that she cries every day and every night and wishes that you come back even we wish that you come back all of us wish that you come back’’ said Iduna. Erickson said ‘‘ okay I will come back but tell Freya to promise me she will never do that again.
