

Viking Creations

Chapter 1

Do you ever wonder how the Earth was created? Well, in the Vikings stories they used to tell tales about the gods. I don't mean telling off us, I mean old, old stories and these stories I am going to tell you!!

Chapter 2

Long ago, in a magnificent kingdom far away there lived a goddess and she was the goddess of beauty and kindness called Violet. The only problem with her was that she knew that she was beautiful and she was very, very vain. One day, Odin (the creator god) invited her to a big celebration. Violet asked her husband Erik "What ring should I wear? The emerald one or the ruby one." Erik replied "The ruby, it stands out more!"

Violet shrieked” NO! Everybody has seen them already!!”

Then Violet said “I know, I will go to Midgard (The land of the humans) and buy a new one!!”

Erik said “Darling, I don’t think that is necessary!”

Violet yelled “OH YES IT IS!!”

As soon as possible she went over the rainbow bridge and in Midgard. It was too sunny so she went to sit in some shade under a big oak tree. Suddenly, she saw a big light, it was so bright it could blind her.

She had a closer look and she saw that it was a pink ring but it was surrounded by 2 horrible eels which had lumpy skin 3 eyes and blood trickling down their mouth. Violet asked politely “Please can I borrow your ring for money?”

The eels cackled and said “Oh, we don’t want money we want you to bring an apple from the goddess Idunas apple orchard!”

Violet said “Ok.”

Violet didn’t know that she couldn’t pick the apples only Iduna could and even if she tried they would rot in her hands.

So she went back to Asgard and she went to Idunas garden.....

When she got there, she started to take the apples off the tree but the apples kept rotting!

That is when she had an idea, she called Iduna and told that she needed one of her apples so she gave her two. After that, she quickly ran back to Midgard and gave the two delicious apples to the eels.

They gave the beautiful ring to her and she was on her way back to Asgard. She told her husband everything that happened and Erik was so ashamed that Violet tricked Iduna and gave the apples to their worst enemies!!!!

He was so ashamed that he ran away from the palace, over the rainbow and far far away. Odin knew where he was because he looked in his magic ball. Violet cried and cried, she went to Odin to seek her forgiveness but Odin said 'NO!'

Her punishment was to wear the ring for the rest of her live. After a year, he came back but only Violet saw him, she said to Odin "Erick has come back, go and see for yourself." Then she realised what she had said, she didn't want everybody to find out about him!! As soon as possible she said “He came back last year but he didn’t visit you!!”

She quickly went back to her bedroom and started thinking about what she had done. She thought “I can’t believe what I have just done, I lied to the person that made me, Oh my God!!!”

She ran to the window and shouted “Erick, Erick my darling please come back to me! She felt a gust of wind, it was Erick. She took him back to Odin and Violet said “I am really, really sorry
please forgive me.”

Odin and Erik said” We forgive you, but you must promise me you will never be vain and after that through that ring back into the river!!”

At the end they lived happily ever After!!

The bird called Thiatzi

Chapter 3

Since, the accident happened with the ring, Violet was never vain. One sunny day, Atla (the goddess of water), wanted to go to Midgard with Violet to see the baby birds hatch. Violet said “Oh, I’d love to how about in 30 minutes.”

Atla said “That would be amazing!!”
After 30 minutes, off they went in Violet’s chariot which was pulled by 2 light blue flying horses. They landed near a bird’s nest which had cute little robins. Suddenly, a giant eagle flew right on top of their heads!!

Violet had recognised the eagle- it was Thiatzi, the king of all frost giants (the gods sworn enemies)!! They had to keep shelter or else Thiatzi's magic would turn them into evil frost giants!! They quickly ran for shelter under a cave. Atla rescued the day by using her magic power of water by turning a little puddle into a big whirlpool. The whirlpool took in Thiatzi and he was never to be seen again. They went home and jumped on their beds and Violet said "Was that all a dream, Atla?"

Atla said " I don't know!"
