

- Correct mistakes in the sentences below

I buyed a new book last week.

She gone to the city centre.

My brother workd in London in 1996.

Did you helped him with his Maths?

I selled my car on Sunday.

You was happy when I saw you.

RECALL

GUIDED PRACTICE –

Put the paragraphs in the correct order to create a logical story.

Quickly, Tom put his shoes on and opened the door. Carefully, he looked around but didn't see the boy...It was quiet outside, the crying stopped.

Slowly, Tom opened the window and looked around. In the middle of the lawn, he saw a little boy. The boy was crying.

One autumn evening, Tom woke up in the middle of the night. Quietly, he left his bed and look through the window. He didn't see anything but heard some strange noises.

GUIDED PRACTICE –

Put the paragraphs in the correct order to create a logical story.

One autumn evening, Tom woke up in the middle of the night. Quietly, he left his bed and look through the window. He didn't see anything but heard some strange noises. Slowly, Tom opened the window and looked around. In the middle of the lawn, he saw a little boy. The boy was crying. Quickly, Tom put his shoes on and opened the door. Carefully, he looked around but didn't see the boy...It was quiet outside, the crying stopped.

LO: I CAN ENSURE THE CONSISTENT AND CORRECT USE OF TENSE THROUGHOUT A PIECE OF WRITING

Some will even write the next part of the story.

Some will explain how they knew which stories to match together.

Most will match paragraphs to make a logical story.

All will find past tense verbs and adverbials in the story.

INTELLIGENT PRACTICE—

Highlight adverbials and underline past tense verbs.

One autumn evening, Tom woke up in the middle of the night. Quietly, he left his bed and looked through the window. He didn't see anything but heard some strange noises. Slowly, Tom opened the window and looked around. In the middle of the lawn, he saw a little boy. The boy was crying. Quickly, Tom put his shoes on and opened the door. Carefully, he looked around but didn't see the boy...It was quiet outside, the crying stopped.

INTELLIGENT PRACTICE– ANSWERS

Highlight adverbials and underline past tense verbs.

One autumn evening, Tom woke up in the middle of the night. Quietly, he left his bed and looked through the window. He didn't see anything but heard some strange noises. Slowly, Tom opened the window and looked around. In the middle of the lawn, he saw a little boy. The boy was crying. Quickly, Tom put his shoes on and opened the door. Carefully, he looked around but didn't see the boy...It was quiet outside, the crying stopped.

INTELLIGENT PRACTICE

Look at the paragraphs. Put them in the logical order. Circle all the adverbials and underline past verbs.

It looked like a small spaceship...Was it a toy somebody left?

In the middle of the meadow, there was strange object.
Carefully, Mark walked to the thing it inspect it.

Mark decided to go for a walk. After some time, he spotted something strange in front of him.

One boring afternoon, Mark sat on his sofa. He didn't know what to do. In the kitchen, his mum was washing the dishes and his dad was having a nap in his bedroom.

INTELLIGENT PRACTICE - ANSWERS

Look at the paragraphs. Put them in the logical order. Circle all the adverbials and underline past verbs.

One boring afternoon, Mark sat on his sofa. He didn't know what to do. In the kitchen, his mum was washing the dishes and his dad was having a nap in his bedroom. Mark decided to go for a walk. After some time, he spotted something strange in front of him. In the middle of the meadow, there was strange object. Carefully, Mark walked to the thing it inspect it. It looked like a small spaceship... Was it a toy somebody left?

INTELLIGENT PRACTICE

Explain how you knew the correct order of the story? What helped you?

DIVE DEEPER 1 –
WRITE WHAT HAPPENS NEXT IN THE STORY
ABOUT MARK. USE ADVERBIALS AND PAST
TENSE.

