

ERIK AND THE WHITE APE'S

CHAPTER 1

Long ago Legends says there lived a Viking god called Erik who lived in Asgard the city of the gods was in search of new weaponry and new armoury. Erik walked normally on the magical bridge to midgard when Erik got there was thunder, lightning and rain then. There was a ravine witch was full of gold 'if a human had found this ravine this would have been the jackpot for them' said Erik. Then Erik went in the ravine these magical steps appeared out of no where the steps leaded down to the bottom of the ravine. There was a tunnel of silver ore's it was dark it wouldn't call me going in there but Erik went inside the tunnel. It was spooky, creepy and jump scaring it was it was a long tunnel it was very long Eventually Erik got there.

This is Asgard the city of the gods in the day it will shine like the sun. In the night it will glimmer.

This is would have been what the ravine looked like that Erik saw.

CHAPTER 2

When Erik got to the end of the tunnel there was a beautiful Forest full of animals then. Erik went exploring there was this castle hidden in the forest. It was kind of a tree castle.

Erik slowly walked to the tree castle then Erik heard a noise of a hammer bang when every time when. Erik got closer he could hear multiple hammers. When Erik reach to the door it was massive Erik opened the door with half of his power and energy then Erik went inside. The tree castle inside it was humongous then Erik saw giant white Ape's. Bigger than lorry's they were the size of space stations and weighed more than 87kg.

These were really deadly Ape's and the best armour & weapon maker. Also the worst enemy of the gods Erik really wanted it so he told the Ape's "I will do anything for it" said Erik and the. "Give every Ape in kingdom a hug" said the king white Ape so Erik did it and then he ran away out of the tunnel out of the ravine out. Then to the Rainbow Bridge and then Erik was in Midgard all dressed up.

All the gods gathered around then Odin came and said "what is this" then Erik. "I got this wonder full armour of a great warrior and I have the blue Excalibur and the. Ancient shield that nothing can go through it" Replied Erik. "Were did you get all this stuff" said Odin "I got it from the white Ape's" said Erik then. "I will not punish you Erik" said Odin.

“But if you do anything bad again I will punish you like no other God could handle the pain”.

THE END