Dear Joe Wicks,

I am writing to tell you about the things I've been doing while school is closed. I know you don't know me, but my family and I have been doing your PE sessions on YouTube every morning, so I thought you might like to get to know one of your loyal viewers.

Each morning after our exercise, we start home school. I teach my children and help them with their work. I also keep my laptop on so I can check the work that's being posted to ClassDojo. There's been some excellent work. The children of Scotholme school are very disciplined and resilient, as I'm sure you will have heard. I've decided to stop shaving my head and beard until school reopens. Usually I shave my head at least once a week, but now I'm letting my hair and beard grow, just to see how funny I'll look when life gets back to normal. I've been making lots of music in the evenings. It helps me to feel calm and happy. My family are doing a great job of looking after each other and keeping each other smiling and laughing.

What have you been doing each day after your YouTube sessions? I imagine it must be pretty exciting knowing you've got so many viewers. Do you think you'll get your own TV show when things go back to normal? I hope so - you've definitely inspired lots of people to stay active and healthy.

All the best,

Mr Gardner
