

HOW ODIN CREATED THE WORLD

BY ABDUR 4A

CHAPTER 1

Long ago in a world with nothing, it was very dark and there was a god called Odin. The only one who could make the world. His enemies were the evil Giants. But there was one giant who could transform into an Eagle. It was Thiazzi. So Odin, the creator god, gave them a very freezing world called Jotunheim land of the giants. There was a god called Loki he was surprised of what Odin did. After a few days Odin had an idea to make a home for Humans. So he did, he called it Midgard Home of the humans. Loki said "what about us. Where will we live?". Odin created the world of the gods called Asgard a very mystical world. When Odin went to Midgard, he muttered something into the two trees and suddenly... the first man and woman came to LIFE!!! And the final touch he connected Asgard to Midgard with a Spectacular Rainbow. And that is how Odin created the world (IN VIKING TIME).

THE MAGIC PIE CHAPTER 2

One day when the population of Midgard increased, Ereck the special human had a magic pie that could turn any Elderly God into a Young Beautiful God. But one day all of the gods started to feel weak. They were turning old. Ereck had only 1 magic pie so he went in search for them in Midgard. When he was walking through the Rainbow, it started to rain and just in time he found a cave so he went in. He also had a Sturdy Sword to kill any bad people he sees. Just when he saw a shining light he went in because he thought there were lots of Magic Pies. And he was right, there was a lot of Magic pies in fact there was enough for all of the gods (INCLUDING THOR GOD OF THUNDER). But there were a lot of Ghouls in the way (20). Remember Ereck's sword is sturdy so with one big slash all of the Ghouls died the blood went everywhere. So he obtained all of the Magic Pies went over the rainbow bridge and went to Asgard. He gave all the Gods a Magic Pie to eat. Every single God said "THANK YOU ERECK ". They all said it with a big happy smile. And that's that the end of another story.

THE EVIL GIANT THIAITZI

CHAPTER 3

One day, Odin said “we are going to Jotunheim and I’m going with Loki “. So we went. We went there because we had to defeat Thiatzi. It took 20 minutes. After we’ve got there, we were very quiet because Thiatzi was 1 kilometre away from us. Loki launched a fireball at Thiatzi. His whole top burned of. Then Odin spewed poison at him. That was very effective against him. It was very effective that he fainted. But that was not all, while we looked away when we looked back Thiatzi escaped. Loki and Odin were shocked they did not know how he escaped. Just on their left, they saw a big castle. At first they thought it was Thiatzi’s so they went in. Then they heard a laugh it sounded like Thiatzi, on second thought it was Thiatzi. They found Thiatzi, managed to chop both of his legs of, and ran back to Asgard. Odin and Loki were very happy because they thought they were going to lose but no they apparently won. They said to Thor and every other god “we’ve won against Thiatzi”. Every god were cheering for them and were very happy. But now it is the end of another STORY!!

THE REVENGE OF THE

GHOULS CHAPTER 4

Remember the Ghouls from Chapter 2 well they are going to take revenge. They’ve forged new armor and swords because ghouls are rotted human bodies that still have brains. Also, they have reanimated 1000 more Ghouls. Do you think the gods could handle it? Of course they can, they are gods and anyway there is Odin with a staff and could summon fireballs, iceballs and he can spew poison. Then there is Thor the god of thunder everyone knows him, with his hammer. He could summon Lightning and can summon Electric people that run into the Ghouls that will electric shock them which also causes them to explode!! I Loki won’t tell you what will happen in the battle because it will take very long. After 3 or 4 hours the gods successfully won the battle. But the reason why the Ghouls lost the battle is THEIR WEAKNESS WAS LIGHTNING!!!!!!!!!! That’s the end of this story and the story I’m going to do next is the final chapter so stay tuned.....

THE PORTAL OF EVILNESS

FINAL CHAPTER (5)

Odin had the idea that a portal was created in the depths of the forest so they went in it (Thor, Odin and Loki) and they were in a mystical world of Ghouls, Monsters and at the end of the unknown world there was a big dragon call " Helder " Guardian Of The Under World (Hell). But the ghouls and the monsters were easy to kill so It took them just 4 or 5 minutes but the dragon was a killer it took them a mere 10 HOURS TO KILL IT! But the eventually killed it so they went out closed the portal by slashing it and returned to Asgard. They all said "we have found why the Ghouls and stuff came it is because of a portal and we shut it down" and again everyone were cheering but mostly the dragon teleported to Asgard. The dragon was Thiatzi. Apparently Thiatzi didn't die he came back to life by his master "Ganandorf" The God Of Fire. So everyone went back to their houses to rest but only one god was awake Odin and Loki because they went to a Special forest called "Janfor" there were more ghouls which took them 10 or 20 minutes because the ghouls were very overpowered. And that's the end of the story my name is Loki by name and Jokey by nature

THE END